World welcomes new millennium

Russian president Yeltsin resigns

Celestine Bohlen
New York Times

MOSCOW — President Boris Yeltsin shocked his nation and the world Friday by announcing his resignation six months ahead of schedule, and handing over power to his favored successor, Prime Minister Vladimir Putin.

As the final act of an extraordinary career, Yeltsin, 68, chose the last day of 1999, and the start of a four-day New Year holiday in Russia to try to

New age met with fireworks, prayer, joy

Marcus Eliason

From East to West and North to South, the world welcomed the new millennium in a shimmering tapestry of song and light that rippled around the globe.

Along with choreographed spectacle came high drama, reminders Friday in Russia and Asia of the turmoil of the dying century.

Woven together by satellite TV, the world's nearly 200 countries, in their 24 time zones, became a jamboree of disparate cultures — South Sea islanders singing Haka
